"I love the Kids Fun Run because there's nothing better than watching young people feel the sense of accomplishment and exhilaration when they cross a finish line, many of them for the first time," said Race

Director Ralph Staph. “We are so appreciative of Duncan Toys and their generous support of this race.”

“For 96 years, the core of our company’s mission has been to help kids of all ages find their inner fun,” said Mike Burke, Duncan Toys’ Director of Sales and Marketing. “Our yo-yos and other activity toys get kids off their devices, on their feet and taking part in a healthy activity, just like the Kids Fun Run does. Aligning with this event and helping bring smiles to the faces of hundreds of kids as they cross the finish line was a perfect fit for Duncan.”
